

German Teaching internship opportunity !

Bryanston School, Dorset

Are you interested in a teaching internship abroad for the academic year starting September 2020-2021 ? Are you studying to be a teacher and have some experience already in class? Could you work with students studying German and help to prepare for exams, work with conversation classes and take literature classes and help with grammar? Then this placement could be for you!

This top public school is looking for an enthusiastic German assistant who could also help out with sports and an extra-curricular activity.

Accommodation and meals are provided and all bills would be paid and there are excellent facilities at the school which can also be used.

Please contact Mrs Veneziano as soon as possible to find out more!
