The German Historical Institute London invites submissions for its 2022 Dissertation Prize

The Prize of the German Historical Institute London is awarded annually for an outstanding Ph.D. thesis on

- German history (submitted to a British or Irish university),
- British history or British colonial history (submitted to a German university),
- British-German relations or British-German comparative history (submitted to a British, Irish, or German university).

The Prize is 1,000 Euros and will be presented on the occasion of the GHIL's Annual Lecture on 4 November 2022.

To be eligible, applicants must have successfully completed doctoral exams and vivas between 1 August 2021 and 31 July 2022.

To apply, send one copy of the thesis with

- a one-page abstract
- examiners' reports on the thesis
- a brief CV
- a declaration that the work will not be published before the judges have reached a final decision
- a supervisor's reference to reach the Director of the German Historical Institute London, Professor Dr Christina von Hodenberg, by 31 July 2022.

Applications and theses should be sent by email as a PDF attachment to: prize@ghil.ac.uk

If the prize-winning thesis is on British history, British colonial history, British-German relations or British-German comparative history it may also be considered for publication in one of the Institute's publication series.
