Visit to Deutsches Filmmuseum

Come and immerse yourself in the wonderful world of cinema at the Deutsches Filmmuseum! Join us for the guided tour through the current exhibition WEIMAR WEIBLICH, which will give you an insight to the role of women working in the film industry in times of the Weimar Republic (1918 – 1933) and how cinema deals with gender roles and relations in general.

In the permanent exhibition you have the chance to see exciting exhibits, such as working models of historic devices and interactive stations. Explore moving images and experience the fascination of the medium of film. Join us and share in the excitement of the world of film!
